4. Discovery:

- A. The discovery provisions of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and the Court's Local Rules shall govern the discovery to be conducted in the Avoidance Actions, unless otherwise provided herein.
- A.B. Unless the parties agree to a different date, the initial disclosures provided by Rule 26(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall be made within the later of (i) 60 days from the date of the Initial Case Conference or (ii) 1890 days from the date the complaint was filed. - iv. To the extent that documents are organized by date, custodian, or subject matter, either because they were so maintained or because the Trustee so organized them, the Trustee shall produce such documents as organized; and
- Nothing herein shall preclude the parties from requesting additional formats of production, metadata, or native documents.
- Notwithstanding the Protective Order dated February 16, 2010 (Docket No. 1951) (the "Global Protective Order"), materials containing nonpublic personal information and/or sensitive financial information, including, without limitation, CONFIDENTIAL Account Materials (as defined in the Global Protective Order) may be designated by the Trustee as "Professionals' Eyes Only." - D.E. In the event of a discovery dispute between the parties, the parties shall meet and confer in an attempt to resolve the dispute. If not resolved, the parties shall comply with Local Bankruptcy Rule 7007-1 with respect to resolution of the dispute.

- E.F. Unless the parties agree to a different schedule, all fact discovery in an Avoidance Action shall be completed within 210 days after the Initial Case Conference. No further fact discovery shall be conducted after that date absent order of the Court upon a showing of good cause.
- Unless the parties agree to a broader scope, absent further order of the Court upon a showing of good cause, discovery will be limited solely and specifically to In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. - G.H. The parties may take depositions of fact witnesses during the period for fact discovery after initial disclosures have been made. &lt;sup>2</sup> Because the Trustee has no personal information regarding the facts and circumstances of the transfers from BLMIS to the defendants, all of which occurred prior to his appointment as Trustee, and any information that the Trustee does have is the result of privileged communications with his attorneys, the Trustee submits that he does not personally possess any discoverable information and accordingly, a deposition of him would serve no purpose.

- L.M. To the extent that the Trustee proffers an expert witness on an issue that is common to more than one Avoidance Action, the Trustee may coordinate such deposition in multiple Avoidance Actions to maximize efficiency and use of resources. The Trustee shall notify all interested parties of the proposed date, time, and location of the deposition. To the extent a deposition is coordinated in multiple Avoidance Actions, the limitations set forth in Fed. R. Civ. - B. Except as is set forth herein, the mediation shall be conducted in accordance with the General-Order Amending-M-390 (the "Mediation Order") which is available on the Bankruptcy Court's website: (http://www.nysb.uscourts.gov/). A copy of such order is also available on the Trustee's website: [(www.madofftrustee.com/_____)].
- C. Within 14 calendar days after the filing of the Notice of Mediation Referral, the defendant shall (i) choose one of the mediators (each a "Mediator", collectively, the "Mediators") from the list of proposed Mediators annexed hereto as Exhibit 4 (the "Mediator List")<sup>3</sup> and (ii) file a "Notice of Mediator Selection" with the Court. If a defendant does not timely choose a Mediator from the Mediator List or fails to timely file the Notice of Mediator Selection in the adversary proceeding, the Trustee shall choose a Mediator from the Mediator List and file the Notice of Mediator Selection with the Court. By mutual agreement, the Trustee and defendant may select a mediator not on the Mediator List-or request that the Court appoint a judicial mediator. In the event that the parties cannot agree on a Mediator, any party may request that the Court appoint a mediator not on the Mediator List from the Registrar of Mediators maintained by the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York. The Trustee may revise the Mediator List from time to time as may be appropriate. A copy of the Mediator List, as updated from time to time, is available on the Trustee's website: [(www.madofftrustee.com/ )].

- D. Promptly after the filing of the Notice of Mediator Selection, the Trustee and Defendant's counsel (or the Defendant if appearing pro se) shall jointly contact the selected Mediator to discuss the mediation.
- E. The parties shall exchange position statements, which may not exceed twenty pages double-spaced in 12 point type (exclusive of exhibits and schedules), at least 10 days prior to the scheduled mediation. The Mediator may also require the parties to provide to the Mediator any relevant papers and exhibits, and a settlement proposal.
- F. All mediations must be concluded within 120 days of the date of the Notice of Mediator Selection, which deadline may be extended by the mutual consent of the parties to the mediation and the Mediator.
- G. The parties shall participate in the mediation in good faith and with a view toward reaching a consensual resolution. The mediation(s) shall be attended by a representative for each of the defendants parties with full settlement authority and, if a defendant is represented, their counsel, as well as counsel for the Trustee. To the extent the Trustee needs to obtain settlement authority from SIPC or anyone else, the Trustee shall obtain such settlement authority prior to the mediation, and such authority shall be communicated to the Trustee's representatives attending the mediation. If the defendant resides more than 25 miles outside of New York City, the mediation will be held at a location within 25 miles of the defendant's residence or the defendant will be permitted to attend the mediation by phone. If the defendant is unable to attend the mediation may be attended by defendant's counsel with settlement authority.
- H. - I. No Mediator shall mediate a case in which he/she or his/her law firm currently represents a party with respect to the BLMIS proceeding without the prior written consent of all parties to the mediation. Prior to accepting an Avoidance Action for mediation, the Mediator shall disclose to the parties any such representations. If a Mediator's law firm represents any defendant in the Avoidance Actions or other avoidance actions brought by the Trustee, then (a) the Mediator shall not personally participate in the representation of that defendant and (b) the Mediator's law firm shall impose an ethical wall which ensures that the Mediator will not have access to the defendant's file and/or communicate about the defendant's case or the mediation with anyone working on the defendant's case. The Mediator's participation in mediation pursuant to the Avoidance Procedures shall not create a conflict of interest with respect to the representation of such defendant by the Mediator's law firm.

Motion Practice:

Prior to the close of discovery, no motions may be made without the Court's prior approval, which may be sought, on notice to other parties to the action, by letter to the Court; provided, however, that (i) motions for default judgment may be made without the Court's prior approval; and (ii) routine procedural motions (e.g., motions to intervene or to amend a pleading) may be made without the Court's prior approval only if the moving party obtains the consent of all other parties to the Avoidance aAction; (iii) motions to dismiss may be made without the Court's prior approval; (iv) motions to transfer or withdraw the reference may be made without the Court's prior approval; (v) motions to compel or for a protective order may be made without the Court's prior approval (but the movant must comply with Local Bankruptcy Rule 7007-1); (vi) motions to stay may be made without the Court's prior approval; and (vii) motions for summary judgment may be made without the Court's prior approval (but the movant must comply with Local Bankruptcy Rule 7056-1). Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, a letter request for a pre-motion conference with the Court shall be sufficient to be deemed compliant with the requisite time period for the motion or answer.

Any party seeking to file a summary judgment motion shall comply with Local Bankruptcy Rule 7056-1.

- C.B. All matters concerning any Avoidance Action shall, barring exigent circumstances, only be heard on an omnibus hearing date before the Honorable Burton R. Thereafter, Avoidance Actions Omnibus Hearings shall be scheduled approximately every thirty (30) days at the convenience of the Court. The Trustee shall file and serve notices of the scheduling of the Omnibus Hearings in the Avoidance Actions and post the scheduled dates on the Trustee's website.
- D.C. The Trustee shall file a report in the main SIPA proceeding (Adv. Pro. No. 08-01789) at least one week prior to each Avoidance Action Omnibus Hearing setting forth the status of each of the Avoidance Actions scheduled to be heard at the Avoidance Action Omnibus Hearing. The Trustee shall also deliver a copy of the report to Judge Lifland's Chambers and serve each of the applicable defendants.

7. Pre-trial Conference / Trial:

A. After all discovery has been completed and after the completion of mediation without a settlement, the parties to the Avoidance Action shall so inform the Court at the next scheduled Avoidance Actions Omnibus Hearing. At such time, the Court will address any additional issues, set additional deadlines, if necessary, establish a due date by which the parties must file a joint pre-trial order, and schedule a trial. The parties to an Avoidance Action in which discovery has been completed need not await the completion of discovery in all Avoidance Actions before scheduling trial.

8. Miscellaneous:

- A. These Avoidance Procedures shall control with respect to the Avoidance Actions to the extent of any conflict with other applicable rules and orders.
- B. Nothing herein shall prevent the parties to any Avoidance Action from voluntarily exchanging information or engaging in settlement discussions at any time; provided, however, that any such voluntary exchange of information shall in no way be construed as a waiver of any of the requirements or limitations contained in these Avoidance Procedures.
- C. Noncompliance with the Avoidance Procedures may result in such sanctions as the Court deems appropriate on the non-complying party after notice and a hearing.
- D. The Trustee shall serve a copy of the Order approving these Avoidance Procedures on each defendant in the Avoidance Action at the time he serves the summons and complaint.
- E. The Trustee shall post and maintain a copy of these Avoidance Procedures (together with any amendments or modifications thereto) on his website: [(www.madofftrustee.com/_____)].
